FAQs

1. Bali Tourist Visa FAQs for Nepali Citizens

Do Nepali citizens need a visa to visit Bali?

Yes. Nepali passport holders must apply for a B211A Tourist Visa before traveling to Bali. This visa is valid for 60 days and can be extended twice, each time for another 60 days—allowing a maximum stay of 180 days.

When should I apply for the visa?

It's best to apply 3–4 weeks before your travel date to allow enough time for processing.

Can I work or earn money in Bali with this visa?

No. The B211A visa is strictly for tourism, social visits, or sourcing. Working or earning income in Indonesia is not permitted under this visa.

Can I extend my visa while in Bali?

Yes. You can extend the B211A visa twice, each for 60 days, by visiting the local immigration office in Bali.
