Packing & Essentials

What should I carry?

Valid ID (passport or citizenship)

Light clothes for summer, warm layers for winter

Power adapter (India uses Type C/D/M plugs)

Basic medicines and travel insurance (recommended)

Cultural & Practical Tips

Language:

Hindi and English are widely spoken. Nepali is understood in border areas and by Nepali communities.

Food & Religion:

Vegetarian options are abundant. Respect local customs, especially in temples and spiritual sites.

Mobile & SIM cards:

Nepali SIMs work near the border. For longer stays, buy an Indian SIM (Aadhaar not required for foreigners).

Would you like this turned into a festive campaign post or a Nepali-language flyer with spiritual tour highlights (e.g., Pashupatinath–Kashi corridor, Buddhist circuit)? I can also add SEO-rich content or student fare promos to boost engagement.
